Does your dog suffer from noise aversion?

Use this checklist to identify triggers and behaviors.

		, 88
	Noise Triggers
	Which of these trigger your dog's behaviorial changes?
	Fireworks	Construction Work
	Thunder	☐ Traffic or street nois	se
	Celebrations	Other
	Behaviors
	Which behaviors happen	during noise events?
П	Pacing	Excessive vigilance			Owner seeking behavior or abnormal clinginess
П	Lip licking	or hypervigilance		_	Refuses to eat
П	Trembling or shaking	Cowering			awning
Н	Panting	Hiding			ocalization (whining
ш	ranting	Brow furrowed or ears	back		r barking at the sounds)
		☐ Freezing or immobility
	More Information
	How often does your dog react to noise triggers?
	Once or twice a year	Once or twice a month		Weekly	Daily
	Describe the intensity of	your dog's reaction to nois	e trigger	s:
	Mild - Has a minor impact on our dog's quality of life
	Moderate - Has a modest impact on our dog's quality of life
	Severe - Has a significant impact on our dog's quality of life
			_
	_	r your dog to recover from a	a reaction	ı to noi	se triggers?
	Immediately after the noi
	Within an hour after the r	noise trigger stops		1
	Several hours after the no	oise trigger stops
	A day or more after the no	oise trigger stops
	© 2016 Zoetis Services LLC. All r	rights reserved. SIL-00144	Vin		